

Dave the Brave

Read the story about a brave little boy and answer the questions below:

On New Year Eve, young Dave was sitting near his window with a heavy heart. He wanted to go outside and make a snowman. But his mother did not let him. She said, "It's snowing heavily. It won't be safe. Why don't you play with your stuffed panda instead?" Dave told his mother that even his panda, Mr. Fresh, wanted to go outside. "Plus, I am a big boy now," Dave tried to plead but she still didn't agree. Looking out of his window, Dave saw his neighbor Mrs. Sharpton walking on the slippery street with lots of bags and parcels. He knew she needed help. He wanted to go outside and help her but his mother had asked him not to go out. So, he carefully opened the window and shouted, "Look out, Mrs. Sharpton, there is ice next to your stairs." Mrs. Sharpton looked and saw there indeed was a lot of ice near her stairs. If Dave had not warned her, she would have slipped and hurt herself. Pleased, she called back, "Thank you, Dave the Brave." This cheered Dave up and he happily started playing with Mr. Fresh in his room.

Questions:

- 1) Why did Dave's mother not let him go outside?

Ans: _____

2) What was Dave's stuffed panda called?

Ans: _____

3) Who was walking on the slippery street?

Ans: _____

4) Why didn't Dave go out to help his neighbor?

Ans: _____

5) What did Mrs. Sharpton say to Dave?

Ans: _____

